IMPORTANT DELIVERY MESSAGE:

It is imperative that when our Carriers arrive at your nominated delivery address, they are able to effect delivery, either by the fact that the premises are attended, or specific instructions are available as to where to leave the goods. Neither we, nor our Carriers, will accept any responsibility for goods left (by instruction) at an unattended location which are later found to have been misappropriated after delivery. If our Carriers are unable to effect any delivery during normal working hours, due to non-attendance of the recipient at the nominated delivery point, ANY AND ALL additional charges we incur for re-delivery at a later time will be passed on to you, the Client.

When signing a Carrier's Delivery Docket accepting receipt of a consignment, please ensure that the quantity of packages you are signing for is the same quantity that is shown on the Delivery Docket. If the full quantity of packages shown on the Carrier's Delivery Docket has been signed for, the Carrier will consider the Delivery to be complete and may not assist in the search for any "missing" packages.
